

Theory of Knowledge Presentation

What is the Theory of Knowledge presentation?

The ToK presentation applies knowledge issues and theories learned in class to real life inquiries (e.g. What is Art?). Select the IB Manager tab and choose the ToK tab to begin.

Navigation Guide

The ToK Presentation Worksheet organizes all of your group's ToK activity in one place.

Presentation Details
Add details and click Save Presentation to begin

Documents
Upload relevant documents for your teacher to review

Planning
Describe your planning using the prompts above each space

Group Members
Add and view group members

Planning Documents
Generate PDFs of your plans and marking form

The interface shows the 'ToK Presentation' section with a title 'Our Perception of Time' and a duration of 14 minutes. It includes a 'Presentation Documents' section with an uploaded PDF 'Chloe_Jessica_Presentation_Outline.pdf'. The 'Presentation Planning' section contains prompts for describing the real life situation, the TOK knowledge issue, and a summary of the plan. A 'Next Steps' section suggests generating a ToK PPM. A 'Presentation Marks' table is visible on the right.

Criterion	Presente
A	4
B	5.0
C	4.0	4.0
D	5.0	5.0
Total	18.0	18.0

The ToK Presentation Step-by-Step

1) Add your group members by clicking on the Add Member button in the right hand menu. To remove a member, click the trash can next to their name.

Members

Chloe Epelbaum
m: +65.9301.5831
chloe@eduvo.com

Jessica Howard
m: 215 732 7123
jessica@eduvo.com

2) Add your title, essential question and real life situation to begin. You can edit these by pressing Edit ToK Presentation.

ToK Presentation Edit ToK Presentation

Presentation Title

Essential Question

Real Life Situation

or

3) Explain your presentation planning in detail by answering the questions.

Presentation Planning

Please describe your planning for the presentation.

What is the real life situation under consideration?

What is the TOK knowledge issue that will be the focus of your presentation?

Write a summary in note form (for example, a bullet point list), of the way you plan to deal with knowledge issues during your presentation.

- Read 'Tipping Point' by Malcolm Gladwell
- Read 'The (Mis)behavior of Markets' by Mandelbrot"/>

or

4) Assess how well your group did in all four criteria of the ToK presentation.

Assessment

Criterion	Achievement Level
A Identification of Knowledge Issue	<input type="text" value="5"/> / 5
Comments <input type="text" value="Offered a new perspective on the recent financial crisis."/>
B Treatment of Knowledge Issue	<input type="text" value="5"/> / 5
Comments <input type="text" value="The epistemological question of identifying truth through faith was profound."/>
C Knower's Perspective	<input type="text" value="4"/> / 5
Comments <input type="text" value="Our research supported our view on the nature of information we face on daily basis."/>
D Connections	<input type="text" value="5"/> / 5
Comments <input type="text" value="Offered a philosophical perspective on the time-series analysis and the use of fractals in the financial industry."/>

or

Next Steps

After completing your presentation, you can generate the presentation planning and marking document:

5) Planning and assessment can be generated as a PDF by clicking on the ToK PPM button on the right menu.